

SENTENCE

- Largest unit of grammatical description- consists subject and predict
- Have at least one action or a verb
- A group of words that expresses statement, question, command or wish
- A written sentences begins with a capital letter and ends with a punctuation mark

TYPES OF SENTENCE ON THE BASIS OF FUNCTION

1. Declarative/Assertive sentence-

- ends with full stop giving the general ideas, starts with noun or pronoun and may be positive or negative.

Sub + (Auxiliary) + verb +..... Sub + Auxiliary not + verb +.....

Ram is a boy.

Ram doesn't know everything.

2. Interrogative sentence/yes no question/wh- question

- Starts with wh/aux. verb and ends with question mark, so ask a question and requires piece of information

Auxiliary + subject+ verb +.....?

Wh + aux.+ sub+ verb +.....?

Can you swim in a river?

What is your name?

3. Imperative sentence

- Starts with verb, don't or let and express command, order, suggestion, warning or request, subject is supposed you but lacking and ends with full stop.

Verb+.....

Don't +verb

Shut the door./ Draw the picture.

Don't tell lies./ Let him sing a song.

CONT....

4. Optative sentence-!

- Starts with may and ends with exclamation mark (!), expresses wishes, blessings, curses, greetings, prayer etc.

May+subject+v1+.....

May god help us!/ May you live long!

5. Exclamatory sentence

- Starts with what , how or interjections and ends with exclamation mark, express surprise, joy, fear, happiness, anger, pain i.e. sudden emotions.

Interjections (!) + subject+.....

How/what+.....!

Ouch! My leg is paining.

What a nice picture!

Ouch! It hurts.

How brave you are!

How nice it is!

- On Structure basis there are 3 types of sentences

- a. Simple Sentence
- b. Compound Sentence
- c. Complex Sentence

- Ram is a student. (Simple Sentence)
- Ram goes to school and learns the moral story. (Compound Sentence)
- Ram goes to school where he learns the moral story. (Complex Sentence)

SIMPLE SENTENCE

Formula:

Single verb, finite verb, no subordinate clause

Using -to+V1

Using - ing Form (Noun)

Ram is a student and Shyam is a student.

Ram and Shyam are students.

I went Kathmandu and Visited Pashupatinath.

I went Kathmandu to visit Pashupatinath.

I went Kathmandu and Visited Pashupatinath.

After going Kathmandu, I visited Pashupatinath.

The moon rose and the fog disappeared.

Rising the moon, the fog disappeared.

Smoking is injurious to health.

Learning English is difficult work.

Being sick, I didn't come college.

SIMPLE SENTENCE

Formula:

Ram did not come to college because his father died yesterday.

Ram did not come college because of his father's death.

Single verb

Although there was heavy rainfall, the final game was going on.

Using -to+V1

In spite of the heavy rainfall, the final game was going on.

Using - Ing Form

In spite of heavy rainfall, the final game was going on.

Making –Noun to

Ram and Shyam are students. (Subject compound)

one verb

Scientists research and study new applications. (verb)

Distance and angles can be measured and read electronically. (Compound subject and verb)

COMPOUND SENTENCE

1. I wrote letters

2. I posted letters.

I wrote letter and I posted them.

Likewise,

1. He came

2. He saw

3. He went.

He came, he saw and he went.

COMPOUND SENTENCE

I saw a black bird. (Compound)

I saw a bird and it was black.

Formula:

Although I was sick, I came to college.(Compound)

At least two verbs

I was sick, yet/but I came to college.

Two independent sentences

I went medical to bring the medicine(Compound)

I went medical and I brought the medicine.

Conjunctions: FANBOYS

I went theatre to watch the night show.

For, And, Nor, But, Or, Yet,

I went theatre so, I could watch the night show.

So

I went club to dance there. (simple)

I went club for dancing. (simple)

COMPLEX SENTENCE

Formula:

At least two verbs

Two sentences: One dependent and other independent

Relative clauses: who/whom/whose/where/what/that/which etc.

Complex reason connectives:

Although/though/ even though

However/because/as/as soon as/while etc.

Conditional sentence:

If Clause/Main clause

COMPLEX SENTENCE

a. When we feel hungry, We eat food

I saw a black bird. (Complex Sentence)

I saw a bird that/which was black.

I was sick but I came college. (Complex Sentence)

Although I was sick, I came to college

The written letter was posted by me. (Complex)

The letter which was written, was posted by me.

COMPLEX SENTENCE

Sparing the rod spoils the child.(Complex Sentence)

If you spare the rod, it will spoil the child.

I missed my assessment because of my father's death. (Complex Sentence)

My father died so that I missed my assessment .

Despite being failed, I shared happiness to my friend's achievement. (Complex Sentence)

Although I was failed, I shared happiness to my friend's achievement.

PRACTICE

1. The poet is not only gazing to the sea but also he wrote poem. (Simple)
2. This is the link road that links two highways. (Compound)
3. Besides making noise, the prisoner vandalized jail. (Complex)
4. She did not come to college because she was sick. (Simple)
5. I saw a black bird. (Complex)
6. I saw a black man. (Complex)
7. Orange is a fruit which is produced in horticulture. (Simple)
8. I missed the bus because of my delay.(compound)
9. She died in her native village. (Complex)
- 10.The master scolded the servant because he was disobedient. (Simple)

CONT..

1. The poet wrote poem after gazing to the sea./ After gazing to the sea, the poet wrote the poem
2. This is the link road and it links two highways.
3. The prisoners not only made noise but they also vandalized jail.
4. She did not come to college because of her sickness.
5. I saw a bird that was black.
6. I saw a man who was black.
7. Orange is a fruit, produced in horticulture. / In horticulture orange fruit is produced
8. I was delayed and I missed the bus.
9. She died in her native village, where she was born.
10. The master scolded the disobedient servant. / because of servant's disobedience, the master scolded the servant.

PRACTICE COPY

1. He ran away because he was afraid. (compound)
2. I saw a wounded bird. (Complex))
3. It is well-known that mosquitoes cause malaria. (compound)
4. She was very tired and so she fell asleep . (complex)
5. You must work hard or you will not pass the examination. (simple)
6. I have lost the watch which my mother gave me. (Compound)
7. When the clock strikes six in the morning, we are ready for our morning walk.
(Compound)
8. She was very tired so she fell asleep.(Complex)
9. We must eat or we cannot live. (Simple)

CONT....

1. He was afraid and he ran away.
2. I saw a bird which was wounded.
3. Mosquitoes causes malaria and this is well-known.
4. A she was tried, she fell asleep.
5. You must work hard to pass the exam.
6. My mother gave me a watch and I have lost it.
7. The clock strikes six in the morning and we are ready for our morning walk.
8. She was very tired so that she fell asleep./ She fell asleep because she was very tired.
9. We must eat to live./ We can not live without eating./Only after living, we can eat.

Thank you